SEASONAL EVENTS

Burns Night Celebrations

Burns Night was celebrated in traditional style at Benarty View, with residents enjoying a hearty lunch of haggis, neeps, and tatties. A local piper entertained everyone, creating a wonderful Scottish atmosphere. The music prompted many shared memories and conversations, making it a very enjoyable and meaningful celebration for all involved.

New Year Ceilidh

Benarty View welcomed the New Year with a lively Ceilidh afternoon. Residents enjoyed Scottish music from well-loved artists such as Andy Stewart, The Alexander Brothers, Scottish pipe bands, and Runrig. There were a few traditional drams of Scottish whisky, plenty of dancing, and lots of enthusiasm throughout the afternoon. It was a fitting way to see in the New Year together.

A Special Christmas Day

Christmas Day was a very special occasion at Benarty View. Residents enjoyed an exceptional Christmas dinner, prepared and served by our dedicated kitchen team. The care taken in the preparation and presentation of the meal was greatly appreciated, and it helped make the day feel truly festive and homely.

RECENT ACTIVITIES

Companion Club

Our weekly Companion Club continues to be a popular part of life at Benarty View. Residents enjoy travelling to a nearby village where they take part in bingo, light entertainment, and plenty of friendly conversation. It is a lovely opportunity for residents to meet up with friends and family, socialise in a relaxed setting, and enjoy a change of scenery.

Trip to Caulders Garden Centre

We enjoyed a lovely outing to Caulders Garden Centre, where residents relaxed with a cup of tea and a slice of cake before having a browse around the shop. The visit offered a pleasant change of pace and a chance to enjoy being out and about together.

Sunshine Club

The Sunshine Club, held every two weeks, brings residents together to enjoy singing and dancing to old-time favourites. These afternoons are always well attended, with familiar music encouraging residents to join in, reminisce, and spend time with friends in a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

In-House Pantomime

Residents had a fantastic time watching our in-house pantomime, "Jackie and the Beans Talk." The performance was great fun and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. We are already looking forward to the next visit and another chance to enjoy live entertainment together.
